II Read the poem. Identify the NOUNS and classify them as COMMON and PROPER Noun:

Clown is a Noun

By Lill Pluta

Clown is a noun. Car is a noun too.

A clown in a car zips off to the zoo.

He meets his friend, Sue. Sue is a gnu.

Sue hops in the car with her buddy, Jack.

Jack is so shaggy. Jack is a yak.

The three zoom away without looking back.

The next stop they make is Sal's Silly Store. Sal asks the group, "Is there room for one more?" "Yes!"

They all say, as they head for the shore.

The four soon arrived at Sandy Beach Bay,

Where they meet a crab, whose name is Jose. They shout, "Let's be friends!" Jose says, "Okay!" Five pals in a car drive back into town.

Now it's your job to point out each noun.

But first name the clown. Quick! Write it down!

III Match the Subject with the suitable Predicate. Colour the Subject and Predicate that matches with same colour. (Use different colour for different sentence)

The sun	were walking in their garden.
The dogs	am your friend.
The pretty girl	are trained classical dancers.
My younger brother	was shining brightly.
The man and his wife	lives in Mexico.
My mother and my aunt	leaned out of the window.
You	was wearing a blue frock.
I	serves in the army.
My sister	were barking loudly.
She	dont have to wait for me.

IV. Value Based Question:

1. Write 5 sentences about how you have helped your parents during quarantine.

V. Application Based Question:
